GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Brother Knights,

It is now October and we are glad to report that our first Breakfast at Central Catholic Grade School was a great success! We were blessed to have a good turnout of Knights and their families at our September Breakfast and the donations that were made help us to support our giving to our charitable causes.

Please remember that you do not have to be a Knight to attend our breakfast as it is open to everyone. I still hear that many people don't know where we are now and have no idea where we moved to from the Thompson Road address. Please feel free to tell other friends and people that you see at Mass that we are still having our breakfasts and they are always held on the Second Sunday of each month, starting about 8:00 am and serving until 11:30 am there at Central Catholic Grade School. We are eternally grateful for your attendance and donations to help us help others who desperately need our help.

We will be again having our Spaghetti Supper at St. Mark on Wednesday, October 16th in Msgr. Schafer Hall and will start serving at 5:30 pm that evening. The funds that we raise at our Spaghetti Supper will enable us to buy Coats For Kids and also Hats and Gloves for needy children in our area.

There will be no officers meeting for the month of October.

If you would like to volunteer in anyway (time, money, or prayers) or chair one of our events, please feel free to contact me.

If you are currently behind on your Dues and would like to become up to date, please contact Bob Lynch at financialsecretary@kofc3660.com or call me.

Respectfully submitted,

John Magee
